Data warehousing and OLAP are two corner stones of business intelligence. The French-speaking workshop on Data Warehousing and On-Line Analysis (EDA), reaching its 11th edition, offers a regular meeting framework to researchers, industrials and users interested in the latest scientific and technological advances in this domain. We thus call all researchers and experts in this domain to present their work. We particularly encourage young researchers to participate in the workshop and get to be known.

Submitted papers may be written either in French or in English. Each of them will be reviewed by at least three members of the program committee.

Research topics include, but are not limited to:

- Active, distributed, parallel, virtual, real-time, in-mobile-environment data warehouses
- Cloud Business Intelligence
- Complex, textual, spatial, spatiotemporal, multimedia data warehouses
- Data Extraction, Transformation and Loading (ETL)
- Data integration
- Data warehouse architectures
- Data warehouse maintenance and administration
- Data warehouse modeling
- Data warehouse quality and integrity
- Data warehouse security and reliability
- Data warehouses and the Web, ontologies
- Data warehousing and data mining
- Decision-support benchmarks
- Materialized views and lattices
- Metadata management and maintenance
- Multidimensional modeling
- Multidimensional query languages, OLAP algebras
- On-line Analysis Process (OLAP)
- Performance optimization, tuning
- Physical organization of data warehouses
- User-centric OLAP
